

NJ's do not call law is excellent. When a person does not want to be solicited by telephone they should be able to exercise that right. It should not be conditional. Please leave NJ's law alone. Thank you.